Next meeting is set for Oct 13 @ 5:30 @ BATV studio.

HR COMMITTEE – 3 of 4 perspective board members are present for meeting and interviews.

#1 - Jon Benditz – has worked with BATV since 2000 in various positions, still volunteering at football games and city council meetings. Jon would like to now become board member to continue service to the organization. Feels there would be no conflict “being boss” of a former employer. Has technology background and feels he could contribute in that area. Jon feels that the board needs to communicate with the public more to get their input.

#2 – Dave Lundborg – Volunteer since 2006 – play by play of football and basketball (nearly 200 games). Enjoys his position with the sports and working with the organization and staff. Is a project manager for AT &T and feels his work experience would work well with the current board and future. Believes the quality of BATV has improved greatly since he has been a resident of 1990 but feels that more of the public needs to be informed of what the programming is all about. Would continue to broadcast if he were voted on the board. Would like to see maybe more info from BATV regarding school happenings.

#3 – Frank Scaccia – Has been a watcher of BATV for football for years and uses BATV for learning about new restaurants and local events. He has IT experience in the work field. Been a Batavia resident for 20+ years and kids have gone through the schools. Open volunteers for numerous organizations; member of the Lions Club and Moose Lodge. Would like to see more “new places ideas” in town. Road construction updates would be great also.

There are 2 – 3 year positions to fill on the board. There is one more candidate who board would like to interview..suggested that the remaining candidate should attend the board retreat for interview. Then a decision can be made for vacancies. Discussion was also had about downsizing the amount of board positions.

MARKETING COMMITTEE REPORT- Meeting was held and the committee decided that they would like to sit and discuss with the board what the formal plan would be for moving forward. Schuster suggested that meeting should wait till new board members are appointed.

TREASURER’S REPORT – Reports sent on September 8.

OLD BUSINESS – None

NEW BUSINESS - A date was set for a board retreat on October 8 from 5-7 @ BATV Studio. Elections / Nominations for board positions will be postponed until October. Rider brought up suggestion that board members sign confidentiality forms.

BOARD MEMBER/STAFF COMMENTS – None

ADJOURNMENT –Meeting adjourned at 9:08 am; Motion made by West, 2nd by Perrault.
